C/O 1st National Bank of Belen
PO Box 4
Belen, New Mexico 88002

Dear Paul:

Enclosed, please find the following J.E. Smith original prints which you ordered for the lobby exhibit commemorating the bank's anniversary:

- #22 Mules to Water
- #34 Railhead at Magdalena
- #61 John Becker Building
- #438 Townsend Ranch
- #617 Rock Ruins
- #625 Belen Roller Mills

As we discussed, we normally do not sell prints smaller than 11 X 14, suitable for framing, but have made exceptions for special projects. Please keep in mind that the collection is protected under copyright, and cannot be reproduced or used for further promotions except with written consent of the family of J.E. Smith, to whom courtesy credits should also be given. Thank you so much for your interest in the collection.

Sincerely yours,

Agnes Anna Strong

Jim:

Art Leupold WILL LEND you his Bell Bank.

He says he has other bank artifacts he will gather up.

He plans to bring you these things. He will call before coming.

Art keeps his account with you even though he lives in ABQ.

He tells me it is sad to be in the bank because he knows no one and no one knows him. His mother Frieda Becker Leupold was one of those five original employees. Of course his father was a Director for many years and trusted friend of L. C. Becker.

So he feels a very close connection with the First National even now.

Thought you ought to know all this. — from Art's viewpoint,

*Have out
Steve Becker*
